This beautifully renovated guesthouse is a wonderful rural retreat, with easy access to Lagos, Alvor and Portimão towns and beaches, and the Monchique mountains. This country property sits in a 5.800m² plot with a swimming pool, a pond and natural garden. The whole property has a rental license for which 2 beautifully decorated self-contained units are rented throughout the year. The main home has been also decorated to a modern standard, whilst still showcasing some of the traditional features, like the beams and antique stone walls.

This is a great investment property or for someone wishing to have family and friends to stay in their own quarters.
