- 11 km from the coastline

Once a very productive farmhouse, this property is now in the market for sale for those looking for space and possibility of construction, whether of a business related to tourism or for one or two houses with generous areas.

The property offers two urban and two rustic articles thus opening the possibility for those who buy. The plot is not flat but it's also not too steep. Close to Tavira and with a village right next to it, it is a good location for those looking for a property in the Eastern part of the Algarve. There is already a positive previous request for the reconstruction of the buildings.
